Caucuses

Moderated Caucus:

- Declared through a motion which determines the speaking time and topic
- Countries can volunteer to provide a speech within the allotted speaking time
- The chair will select a list of volunteering countries to speak
- Takes the form of a formal debate

Unmoderated Caucus:

- Declared through a motion which determines the time of the caucus
- Delegates are allowed to work as they please within the time
 - Informal debates
 - Work on papers
 - Form blocks (alliances)

What are blocs?

- Blocs are groups in which delegates work together to collaborate and share ideas
- They function as alliances where delegates can unite as one in order to promote their ideals with like-minded individuals
- In GA you will use blocs to form resolutions
- There are often a few central blocs in committee made up of leaders and followers

Speaking Tips

Begin Speeches with:

- “Thank you honorable chair and esteemed delegates...”

If you finish early end with:

- “Thank you, I yield the rest of my time for the chair.”

Use inclusive pronouns:

- You are not a person but a country’s representative

Use facts to support your speech

Speak with confidence

Death of SpongeBob

Prologue

Don Spongebob is dead, the once beloved ruler of Bikini Bottom has been assassinated by a rival organization. Born to humble beginnings, spongebob grew up to be not only the wealthiest man in the sea, but a sponge of the people. Everyone loved Spongebob and everyone worked for Spongebob, now his empire lies in ruin, all roads pointing to the end. However, Spongebob's closest advisors, also known as the Squarepants 16 have assembled to save Spongebob's flailing criminal empire. Their objective, to use Spongebob's immense wealth to expand his criminal empire and, in the process, to fulfill the dreams a young sponge had many, many moons ago.
