General Assembly Topic

Foreign Military and Private Military Intervention in Non-International Armed Conflicts

You will examine:

- The limitations of the UN when it comes to intervention
 - Sovereignty
- What warrants intervention
 - Human rights violations
- How to approach intervention
 - Military management
 - Duration of occupation

The Problem

- The objective of the UN is to ensure the enforcement of international peace and cooperation
- The objective violates the concept of state sovereignty
- The United Nations can easily intervene in a conflict where the international community is involved using its “Blue Troops”
- It struggles to enforce human right in countries that are not at war or having a civil dispute.

Example Case: Myanmar

- Myanmar is currently ruled by Min Aung Hlaing, who gained power through a coup in 2021
- The government has continued its persecution of Rohingya muslims
 - 25,000 Killed
 - 700,000 displaced people
- The UN has declared it genocidal, called for trials, but has been unable to stop the persecution

Nations -2 people per nation

- United States
- Colombia
- Mexico
- Chile
- United Kingdom
- Germany
- Ukraine
- Serbia
- Iraq
- Afghanistan
- China
- Bosnia-Herzegovina
- Israel
- Rwanda
- Indonesia
- France

Part 1: Research - 20 minutes

Has your country had any instances of non international armed conflicts where UN assistance would have been welcomed?

How does your country's history reflect your position on this issue?

What was done in the past by your country to solve the issue, and how did it work or fail?

What was done in the past by the United Nations to solve the issue, and how did it work or fail?

What are specific solutions the committee can implement to solve this problem?

How will your solutions be funded or supported?

How do we address the issue of sovereignty as it relates to this topic?

What role does the universal declaration of human rights play in how we approach this topic?

Has your country ever needed UN intervention in this way?

What happens if this committee cannot reach a resolution?

Part 2: Debate

- Delegates are to call for moderated caucuses
 - Speaking time can not exceed 1 minute
 - Speakers' list can not exceed 5 nations
 - Topics can be extended once
- Unmoderated Caucuses will be held next meeting
